

(1) We've

(2) been a while a-wandering among the leaves of green. And now we come a-wassailing so are not daily beggars, that beg from door to door. We are your neighbours children, whomWassail - - - - -
We are - - - - - plainly to be seen: you have seen before: For 'tis Christmastime and we travel far and near, may God bless, you and send you a happy New Year. (1) We happy New Year. (2) God bless the Master of this house likewise the mistress too and all the little children that

God bless the Master of this house, likewise the mistress too, and God bless the master of this house, like

round the table go

all the little children that round the table go - - - - wise the mistress too, and all the little children that round the table go - - - - bless the master of this house likewise the mistress too. And all the little children that

Rit - - -

dal. g.
at

Happy NEW

Year!

END

round the table go

Wassail song.

1. We've been a while a-wandering among the leaves of green.
Wassail----- so plainly to be seen.
For this chrismastime, and we travel far and near, may God bless
you and send you a happy New Year.

2. We've are not daily beggars, that beg from door to door.
We are----- Who you have seen before.
For this chrismastime, and we travel far and near, may God bless
you and send you a happy New Year.

God bless the master of this house, like wise the mistress too, and all the little children that round the table go.

For this chrismastime, and we travel far and near, may God bless
you and send you a happy New Year.